Dear [Name Redacted]

Freedom of Information – Request for Information

With regards to your recent enquiry for information held by the Authority under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act. Please find the information you requested below with reference in the box to your original enquiry for clarity where multiple answers are required.

Details of Your Request

- a) The amount of money that the council has received as payments in lieu of affordable housing (or so-called 'commuted sums') as part of fulfilling a Section 106 agreement in each of the last five financial years (2012/13, 2013/14, 2014/15, 2015/16 and 2016/17)
- b) The total amount of receipts from payments in lieu of affordable housing that the council has spent in each of the last five financial years
- c) A summary of the total number of affordable homes built, acquired or brought back into use through spending the receipts from payments in lieu of affordable housing in within the local authority in each of the last five financial years
- d) The total amount of unspent payments in lieu of affordable housing that the council currently has
- e) The total amount unspent, but allocated payments in lieu of affordable housing that the council has, with a summary of the schemes that they have been allocated to

The response to your request as follows:

The Council have received no contributions in lieu of affordable housing during the time periods specified.

Questions b, c, d and e are therefore not applicable.
