 - to check that donations/loans are permissible
- Any person found breaching the restrictions on use of the electoral register could face an unrestricted fine.

More information can be found in Part 4 of the Electoral Commission's Guidance

Registration

YOUR VOTE MATTERS

DON'T LOSE IT

- As a candidate you are uniquely placed to encourage people to register to vote. You should encourage people to register as soon as possible.
- When discussing registering to vote with individuals, you will need to make them aware that they will need:
 - their National Insurance number,
 - date of birth and address to register.
- People who do not have / cannot retrieve their National Insurance Number can still register, but they may need to provide further information. In such circumstances, they will be contacted by the ERO.
- Registration has changed from a household to an individual system. Online registration takes a few minutes
<https://www.gov.uk/register-to-vote>.

The deadline for applying to register for the election is Thursday 14 April

Absent voting

If you are encouraging people who don't have a postal (or proxy) vote to apply for one, make sure you explain that they will ONLY qualify for one in time for the elections if they are (or will be) registered in time to vote at the elections.

- The deadline to register for is Thursday 14 April
- The deadline to apply for a postal vote (including postal-proxy) is 5pm on Tuesday 19 April
- The deadline to apply for a proxy vote is 5pm on Tuesday 26 April
- The deadline to apply to vote by proxy on grounds of a medical emergency or if unexpectedly called away because of employment or service is 5pm on Thursday 5 May

Campaigning dos and don'ts

- Do use imprints on all your campaign material, including websites and ensure that this meets the requirements set out in Part 4 of the Electoral Commission's Guidance.
- Do comply with planning rules relating to advertising hoardings and large banners.
- Do make sure outdoor posters are removed 2 weeks after the election.
- Do not produce material that looks like a poll card.
- Do not pay people to display your adverts (unless they display adverts as part of their normal business).

More information can be found in Part 4 of the Electoral Commission's Guidance please read this carefully

Code of conduct for campaigners

Campaigners are an essential element of a healthy democracy, but their activities should not bring into question the integrity of the electoral process.

- Electoral registration and absent vote applications:
 - Ensure forms fully confirm to the requirements of electoral law
 - Include the EROs address for the return of forms
 - Ensure unaltered applications are sent to ERO within two working days.
 - Make sure electors understand implications of applying for an absent vote.
 - Do not encourage postal ballot pack redirection.
 - Do not encourage electors to appoint a campaigner as proxy.

Information on the code of conduct can be found here:

<https://www.electoralcommission.org.uk/sites/default/files/2021-03/Code%20of%20conduct%20for%20campaigners%20last%20revised%20Dec%202015.pdf>

Code of conduct for campaigners

- Postal ballot packs:

- Never touch a postal ballot paper
- Never observe electors completing their postal vote.
- Never handle or take any completed ballot paper or postal ballot pack from voters

- Campaigning outside polling stations:

- You are allowed to put your messages to voters on polling day, including public spaces outside polling places
- Keep access to polling places and the pavements around polling places clear to allow voters to enter.

Polling day

We have put arrangements in place to ensure that polling stations are safe places to vote.

Most of the measure that will be in place will be familiar to us all from visiting other public places such as shops and banks, for example the provision of hand sanitiser on entry and exit.

Voters will be encouraged to bring their own pen or pencil for use in the polling station.

Voters should be encouraged to check their poll cards before polling day, to see if their polling station has changed since the previous elections.

- Polling stations open from 7am to 10pm
- Office open 6:30am to 9pm for queries or problems relating to the administration of the election.
 - for queries relating to election finance issues, please contact the Electoral Commission (contact details shown later)
- Voters in the polling station or in a queue outside the polling station at 10pm can apply for a ballot paper.
- Postal votes – can be handed into polling stations within the relevant ward until 10pm or delivered to the Council Offices until 9pm.
- A person in a queue at a polling station at 10pm waiting to hand in postal vote can do so after 10pm.

More information can be found in Part 4 of the Electoral Commission's Guidance

The verification and counting of votes

The verification and counting of ballot papers will commence as soon as possible after 10pm on Thursday 5 May.

More information regarding the verification and count processes will be provided after the close of nominations.

Spending issues

- There is a framework of rules that candidates and agents must work within. It states that election spending must to be properly accounted for.
- While spending returns are made to the RO, specific questions on campaign expenditure should not be directed to the Returning Officer or the elections team.
- Candidates and agents should consult the Electoral Commission Guidance in the first instance (Parts 3 and 6) . Further guidance, forms and contact details are available from the Commission's website at www.electoralcommission.org.uk.

Contact details are provided later.

Candidate spending

- Defined as certain expenses ‘used for the purposes of the candidate’s election’ during the regulated period.
- Responsibility of election agent
- Limit on expenses:
 - £806 + 7 pence per elector in the electoral area for the register in force on Monday 28 March
 - reduced for joint candidates
- Must get and keep receipts (over £20)

Candidates' spending returns

- The spending limits are worked out as follows:
- £806 + 7 pence per elector in the electoral area on the register in force on Monday 28 March
- Returns due 35 calendar days after result of election (Friday 10 June)
- Returns made public by Returning Officer
- Sample of returns may be reviewed by the Electoral Commission
- You must submit a return regardless of whether you have made a spend or not. Failure to submit an expenses return is a criminal offence enforceable by the Police
- Must get and keep receipts (over £20)
- No spending will be reimbursed

More information can be found in Part 3 of Electoral Commission Guidance

May 2022 elections: Candidate and agent webinar – Tuesday 15 March

The Electoral Commission (EC) is hosting a pre-election webinar for candidates, parties and their agents taking part in elections in England on Thursday 5 May.
